CIVIL CEREMONIES/PARTNERSHIPS AT KEELE HALL

The beautiful setting of Keele Hall is fully licensed to hold civil ceremonies / partnerships with a choice of no less than two impressive venues; the Salvin Suite and the Ballroom.

If you wish to marry at Keele Hall you will require the attendance of the Superintendent Registrar of the District to conduct the ceremony and a Registrar to register the marriage. Please telephone 01782 297581.

You will also need to indicate your intention to marry to the Superintendent Registrar(s) in the district where you live, for which a charge may be made. Authority for the marriage will be issued by the Superintendent Registrar(s) of the district(s) notified, 21 days after notice is given. The authority(s) should then be handed to the Registrar at Newcastle Register Office. The fee, payable to the Register Office is currently £303.50 (or £353.50 for a Sunday or Bank Holiday ceremony)*. Your marriage authority is then valid for a period of 12 months. There is also an additional £75.00 booking fee required at the time of booking.

For marriage ceremonies only, at Keele Hall, the full names of the Bride and Groom must be given to your personal Wedding Organiser, prior to the ceremony. The marriage ceremony must be a civil, non-religious ceremony. Any readings, music, words or performances must be secular and regular and agreed with the Superintendent Registrar in advance. There must be no religious artefacts in the room.

No food or drink may be consumed in the room in which the ceremony is to take place, for at least one hour prior to the ceremony, or during the ceremony. Public access to the ceremony of marriage must be permitted.

* Subject to a price increase as from 1st April 2013.

WEDDING TERMS & CONDITIONS

KEELE WEDDINGS

1. WHO IS THE CONTRACT BETWEEN

The contract is between you (the client named on the booking contract) and Us (Commercial & Business Engagement a department of Keele University). The event refers to the booking of our facilities for a specific date and time.

2. PROVISIONAL BOOKINGS

Your booking is considered provisional until you and we sign the booking contract. We will hold the provisional booking for 14 days.

3. PRICES

We may need to increase our prices from the original quotation in line with market fluctuations and inflation. Room hire will not be increased. We will let you know in writing of any increase in the prices and menus will be available 3 months prior to your wedding date.

4. CONFIRMING YOUR BOOKING

We will confirm your booking only on the basis of these terms and the booking contract signed by you. When you confirm your booking you agree to pay all the charges that are listed on the quote. We will base these charges on your confirmed minimum numbers, your estimated menu costs and room hire. You should tell us the minimum and maximum numbers for your booking. You must cater for 100% of your guests.

5. PAYING FOR YOUR EVENT

When you confirm your booking you should send us a non-refundable deposit of £750.00. An invoice for the remainder will be sent when the final arrangements have been agreed with us, usually 6 weeks before your wedding. Full payment is due before your wedding day. Any additional costs incurred on the day of the wedding, after full payment has been made, should be paid on the night. Payment can be made by cash, cheque (payable to Keele University) or most major credit cards.

6. ALTERING YOUR BOOKING

If you make an alteration we will send you a new booking contract which will replace any previous booking contract. Any reduction in numbers or facilities must be paid for under clause 7. All of your requirements confirmed at the start of the booking will be charged for in full.

7. CANCELLING ALL OR PART OF YOUR BOOKING

7.1 You should tell us of any alterations to your booking in writing.

7.2 If you need to cancel more than 6 months before the event, only the deposit will be retained.

If you need to cancel between 3 months and 6 months before the event, we reserve the right to charge 50% of the current quoted amount.

If you need to cancel between 28 days and 3 months before your event, we reserve the right to charge 75% of the current quoted amount.

If you need to cancel less than 28 days before your event, no refund can be made and the event should be paid in full.

7.3 You must pay in full for all items listed on your quote that you do not cancel. When a menu has not been chosen, the cancellation charges will be based on the current quote.

8. ALTERATIONS OR CANCELLATIONS BY US

8.1 We have the right to alter or cancel any booking due to circumstances beyond our control.

If this happens we will use all reasonable endeavours to offer you an alternative. We cannot accept responsibility if we are unable to provide any element of the booking because of industrial action or any other cause which was beyond our reasonable control or if the University needs the facilities for the use of its own students.

8.2 We may cancel or terminate an event if the booking might, in the opinion of the University, prejudice its reputation or endanger its staff, students, residents and/or clients.

9. CHANGES TO FACILITIES BOOKED

We may alter the facilities booked in order to meet the needs of the booking as you have explained them to us. If we feel that this is necessary, we will discuss it with you before any changes are made.

10. THE FINAL DETAILS

Your wedding organiser will invite you to meet and discuss final details approximately 2 months before the date of your wedding. Final details including menus, numbers and timings should be confirmed no later than 6 weeks before your wedding. Following this the booking contract and quote will be updated and an invoice will be raised for final payment.

11. ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

Facilities are only available for the time shown on the booking contract. Any extension to this should be done with our agreement and it will be confirmed if a charge will be made.

12. FOOD AND DRINK

Neither you nor anyone attending your event should bring food, liquor or refreshment onto University premises.

13. HEALTH, SAFETY & LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

13.1 You must advise us of any equipment you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure this is in good repair and condition and shall obtain all risk assessments as appropriate. We reserve the right to request copies of these. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should we feel this necessary.

13.2 You must advise us of any portable electrical equipment which you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure any such equipment has been PAT tested and has a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of your wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

13.3 You should notify us as soon as you are aware of any individuals attending your wedding who are disabled or have any special requirements. We will contact the person concerned and discuss their requirements to allow us to make the appropriate arrangements. We will endeavour to meet any reasonable request, however we regret that we cannot guarantee any request will be met unless we have specifically confirmed this in writing. All such requests are subject to availability. The person will be met on arrival if applicable by a member of the Keele staff and a Personal Emergency and Evacuation Procedure will be discussed.

13.4 All guests and your suppliers must follow our Health and Safety procedure at all times and be made aware of emergency procedures.

13.5 There is a maximum capacity of people for all of our facilities including function rooms and bedrooms. If you exceed this number we will ask the number in excess to leave the room.

13.6 Smoking is not permitted inside any venue of the University.

13.7 You must inform us of any accidents or incidents which involve you or any individuals associated with your wedding which occurs whilst on the University premises. You will need to complete the Universities standard accident / incident report available from the venue reception, university reception areas and security and return to us within 3 working days.

13.8 We do not accept any responsibility for the security of you or your guest's personal possessions.

14. OUTSIDE SERVICES

14.1 If you use the services of anyone other than the University they must follow our procedures this can include but not limited to entertainment suppliers & acts and chocolate fountains. You must notify us in writing that you intend to have outside services present during your wedding and we reserve the right to approve these. We will require their details including company name, contact name and telephone number confirming to us at the final details appointment with your wedding organiser. You should ensure that they comply with our regulations and you should bring these Terms & Conditions to their attention.

14.2 All outside services must follow 13.1 and 13.2 in relation to any equipment they bring onto the University premises, all equipment must be PAT tested and have a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of the wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

14.3 Copies of all outside services insurance documents are required, they must carry public and employers liability and provide risk assessments if requested by us. We do not accept liability for acts or omissions of any party employed by you as part of your event.

14.4 We strongly recommend that you do not confirm any bookings with suppliers before these conditions have been met and we have received copies of all certification as detailed in this point.

14.5 Should we arrange any 3rd party suppliers for your wedding, we are acting as an agent on your behalf and do not accept any liability.

15. SECURITY AND BEHAVIOUR

15.1 A security presence is required for evening functions and this will be arranged and provided by Keele University. This is provided for the safety of your guests and Keele Staff. A minimum of two staff will be provided for the core hours of your wedding, including at least 30 minutes after bar closure time. Keele reserve the right to perform bag searches, so that no unauthorised or dangerous items are brought on site.

15.2 You must ensure that those attending your wedding behave in a way that does not cause a nuisance or disruption to other clients, staff, residents or students. If any participant is unable to correct their behaviour, we may ask them to leave the premises

15.3 Any damage caused to Keele University property by those attending your wedding will be invoiced after the day. In order to maintain the quality of our facilities for all our clients, we ask that nothing is affixed to the wall, floors or ceilings without our written approval.

16. FOR YOUR PEACE OF MIND

16.1 Keele University's insurance policy only covers Public Liability where Keele University is held to be liable. We recommend that you insure yourself against other eventualities. Our liability is limited to the contract price.

16.2 In case of dispute, we can call on the services of Meetings Industry Association Arbitration and Conciliation Service.

17. GENERAL INFORMATION

You may not make any amendment or variation to these terms unless we agree in writing with you before the event. You may not dispose of any of your rights or obligations under this agreement without us agreeing in writing before the event. This contract forms the entire agreement and understanding between the parties for this event. The contract is governed and construed in accordance with English Law and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales

14.2 All outside services must follow 13.1 and 13.2 in relation to any equipment they bring onto the University premises, all equipment must be PAT tested and have a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of the wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

14.3 Copies of all outside services insurance documents are required, they must carry public and employers liability and provide risk assessments if requested by us. We do not accept liability for acts or omissions of any party employed by you as part of your event.

14.4 We strongly recommend that you do not confirm any bookings with suppliers before these conditions have been met and we have received copies of all certification as detailed in this point.

14.5 Should we arrange any 3rd party suppliers for your wedding, we are acting as an agent on your behalf and do not accept any liability.

15. SECURITY AND BEHAVIOUR

15.1 A security presence is required for evening functions and this will be arranged and provided by Keele University. This is provided for the safety of your guests and Keele Staff. A minimum of two staff will be provided for the core hours of your wedding, including at least 30 minutes after bar closure time. Keele reserve the right to perform bag searches, so that no unauthorised or dangerous items are brought on site.

15.2 You must ensure that those attending your wedding behave in a way that does not cause a nuisance or disruption to other clients, staff, residents or students. If any participant is unable to correct their behaviour, we may ask them to leave the premises

15.3 Any damage caused to Keele University property by those attending your wedding will be invoiced after the day. In order to maintain the quality of our facilities for all our clients, we ask that nothing is affixed to the wall, floors or ceilings without our written approval.

16. FOR YOUR PEACE OF MIND

16.1 Keele University's insurance policy only covers Public Liability where Keele University is held to be liable. We recommend that you insure yourself against other eventualities. Our liability is limited to the contract price.

16.2 In case of dispute, we can call on the services of Meetings Industry Association Arbitration and Conciliation Service.

17. GENERAL INFORMATION

You may not make any amendment or variation to these terms unless we agree in writing with you before the event. You may not dispose of any of your rights or obligations under this agreement without us agreeing in writing before the event. This contract forms the entire agreement and understanding between the parties for this event. The contract is governed and construed in accordance with English Law and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales

CIVIL CEREMONIES/PARTNERSHIPS AT KEELE HALL

The beautiful setting of Keele Hall is fully licensed to hold civil ceremonies / partnerships with a choice of no less than two impressive venues; the Salvin Suite and the Ballroom.

If you wish to marry at Keele Hall you will require the attendance of the Superintendent Registrar of the District to conduct the ceremony and a Registrar to register the marriage. Please telephone 01782 297581.

You will also need to indicate your intention to marry to the Superintendent Registrar(s) in the district where you live, for which a charge may be made. Authority for the marriage will be issued by the Superintendent Registrar(s) of the district(s) notified, 21 days after notice is given. The authority(s) should then be handed to the Registrar at Newcastle Register Office. The fee, payable to the Register Office is currently £303.50 (or £353.50 for a Sunday or Bank Holiday ceremony)*. Your marriage authority is then valid for a period of 12 months. There is also an additional £75.00 booking fee required at the time of booking.

For marriage ceremonies only, at Keele Hall, the full names of the Bride and Groom must be given to your personal Wedding Organiser, prior to the ceremony. The marriage ceremony must be a civil, non-religious ceremony. Any readings, music, words or performances must be secular and regular and agreed with the Superintendent Registrar in advance. There must be no religious artefacts in the room.

No food or drink may be consumed in the room in which the ceremony is to take place, for at least one hour prior to the ceremony, or during the ceremony. Public access to the ceremony of marriage must be permitted.

* Subject to a price increase as from 1st April 2013.

WEDDING TERMS & CONDITIONS

KEELE WEDDINGS

1. WHO IS THE CONTRACT BETWEEN

The contract is between you (the client named on the booking contract) and Us (Commercial & Business Engagement a department of Keele University). The event refers to the booking of our facilities for a specific date and time.

2. PROVISIONAL BOOKINGS

Your booking is considered provisional until you and we sign the booking contract. We will hold the provisional booking for 14 days.

3. PRICES

We may need to increase our prices from the original quotation in line with market fluctuations and inflation. Room hire will not be increased. We will let you know in writing of any increase in the prices and menus will be available 3 months prior to your wedding date.

4. CONFIRMING YOUR BOOKING

We will confirm your booking only on the basis of these terms and the booking contract signed by you. When you confirm your booking you agree to pay all the charges that are listed on the quote. We will base these charges on your confirmed minimum numbers, your estimated menu costs and room hire. You should tell us the minimum and maximum numbers for your booking. You must cater for 100% of your guests.

5. PAYING FOR YOUR EVENT

When you confirm your booking you should send us a non-refundable deposit of £750.00. An invoice for the remainder will be sent when the final arrangements have been agreed with us, usually 6 weeks before your wedding. Full payment is due before your wedding day. Any additional costs incurred on the day of the wedding, after full payment has been made, should be paid on the night. Payment can be made by cash, cheque (payable to Keele University) or most major credit cards.

6. ALTERING YOUR BOOKING

If you make an alteration we will send you a new booking contract which will replace any previous booking contract. Any reduction in numbers or facilities must be paid for under clause 7. All of your requirements confirmed at the start of the booking will be charged for in full.

7. CANCELLING ALL OR PART OF YOUR BOOKING

7.1 You should tell us of any alterations to your booking in writing.

7.2 If you need to cancel more than 6 months before the event, only the deposit will be retained.

If you need to cancel between 3 months and 6 months before the event, we reserve the right to charge 50% of the current quoted amount.

If you need to cancel between 28 days and 3 months before your event, we reserve the right to charge 75% of the current quoted amount.

If you need to cancel less than 28 days before your event, no refund can be made and the event should be paid in full.

7.3 You must pay in full for all items listed on your quote that you do not cancel. When a menu has not been chosen, the cancellation charges will be based on the current quote.

8. ALTERATIONS OR CANCELLATIONS BY US

8.1 We have the right to alter or cancel any booking due to circumstances beyond our control.

If this happens we will use all reasonable endeavours to offer you an alternative. We cannot accept responsibility if we are unable to provide any element of the booking because of industrial action or any other cause which was beyond our reasonable control or if the University needs the facilities for the use of its own students.

8.2 We may cancel or terminate an event if the booking might, in the opinion of the University, prejudice its reputation or endanger its staff, students, residents and/or clients.

9. CHANGES TO FACILITIES BOOKED

We may alter the facilities booked in order to meet the needs of the booking as you have explained them to us. If we feel that this is necessary, we will discuss it with you before any changes are made.

10. THE FINAL DETAILS

Your wedding organiser will invite you to meet and discuss final details approximately 2 months before the date of your wedding. Final details including menus, numbers and timings should be confirmed no later than 6 weeks before your wedding. Following this the booking contract and quote will be updated and an invoice will be raised for final payment.

11. ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

Facilities are only available for the time shown on the booking contract. Any extension to this should be done with our agreement and it will be confirmed if a charge will be made.

12. FOOD AND DRINK

Neither you nor anyone attending your event should bring food, liquor or refreshment onto University premises.

13. HEALTH, SAFETY & LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

13.1 You must advise us of any equipment you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure this is in good repair and condition and shall obtain all risk assessments as appropriate. We reserve the right to request copies of these. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should we feel this necessary.

13.2 You must advise us of any portable electrical equipment which you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure any such equipment has been PAT tested and has a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of your wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

13.3 You should notify us as soon as you are aware of any individuals attending your wedding who are disabled or have any special requirements. We will contact the person concerned and discuss their requirements to allow us to make the appropriate arrangements. We will endeavour to meet any reasonable request, however we regret that we cannot guarantee any request will be met unless we have specifically confirmed this in writing. All such requests are subject to availability. The person will be met on arrival if applicable by a member of the Keele staff and a Personal Emergency and Evacuation Procedure will be discussed.

13.4 All guests and your suppliers must follow our Health and Safety procedure at all times and be made aware of emergency procedures.

13.5 There is a maximum capacity of people for all of our facilities including function rooms and bedrooms. If you exceed this number we will ask the number in excess to leave the room.

13.6 Smoking is not permitted inside any venue of the University.

13.7 You must inform us of any accidents or incidents which involve you or any individuals associated with your wedding which occurs whilst on the University premises. You will need to complete the Universities standard accident / incident report available from the venue reception, university reception areas and security and return to us within 3 working days.

13.8 We do not accept any responsibility for the security of you or your guest's personal possessions.

14. OUTSIDE SERVICES

14.1 If you use the services of anyone other than the University they must follow our procedures this can include but not limited to entertainment suppliers & acts and chocolate fountains. You must notify us in writing that you intend to have outside services present during your wedding and we reserve the right to approve these. We will require their details including company name, contact name and telephone number confirming to us at the final details appointment with your wedding organiser. You should ensure that they comply with our regulations and you should bring these Terms & Conditions to their attention.

14.2 All outside services must follow 13.1 and 13.2 in relation to any equipment they bring onto the University premises, all equipment must be PAT tested and have a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of the wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

14.3 Copies of all outside services insurance documents are required, they must carry public and employers liability and provide risk assessments if requested by us. We do not accept liability for acts or omissions of any party employed by you as part of your event.

14.4 We strongly recommend that you do not confirm any bookings with suppliers before these conditions have been met and we have received copies of all certification as detailed in this point.

14.5 Should we arrange any 3rd party suppliers for your wedding, we are acting as an agent on your behalf and do not accept any liability.

15. SECURITY AND BEHAVIOUR

15.1 A security presence is required for evening functions and this will be arranged and provided by Keele University. This is provided for the safety of your guests and Keele Staff. A minimum of two staff will be provided for the core hours of your wedding, including at least 30 minutes after bar closure time. Keele reserve the right to perform bag searches, so that no unauthorised or dangerous items are brought on site.

15.2 You must ensure that those attending your wedding behave in a way that does not cause a nuisance or disruption to other clients, staff, residents or students. If any participant is unable to correct their behaviour, we may ask them to leave the premises

15.3 Any damage caused to Keele University property by those attending your wedding will be invoiced after the day. In order to maintain the quality of our facilities for all our clients, we ask that nothing is affixed to the wall, floors or ceilings without our written approval.

16. FOR YOUR PEACE OF MIND

16.1 Keele University's insurance policy only covers Public Liability where Keele University is held to be liable. We recommend that you insure yourself against other eventualities. Our liability is limited to the contract price.

16.2 In case of dispute, we can call on the services of Meetings Industry Association Arbitration and Conciliation Service.

17. GENERAL INFORMATION

You may not make any amendment or variation to these terms unless we agree in writing with you before the event. You may not dispose of any of your rights or obligations under this agreement without us agreeing in writing before the event. This contract forms the entire agreement and understanding between the parties for this event. The contract is governed and construed in accordance with English Law and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales

Facilities are only available for the time shown on the booking contract. Any extension to this should be done with our agreement and it will be confirmed if a charge will be made.

12. FOOD AND DRINK

Neither you nor anyone attending your event should bring food, liquor or refreshment onto University premises.

13. HEALTH, SAFETY & LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

13.1 You must advise us of any equipment you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure this is in good repair and condition and shall obtain all risk assessments as appropriate. We reserve the right to request copies of these. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should we feel this necessary.

13.2 You must advise us of any portable electrical equipment which you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure any such equipment has been PAT tested and has a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of your wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

13.3 You should notify us as soon as you are aware of any individuals attending your wedding who are disabled or have any special requirements. We will contact the person concerned and discuss their requirements to allow us to make the appropriate arrangements. We will endeavour to meet any reasonable request, however we regret that we cannot guarantee any request will be met unless we have specifically confirmed this in writing. All such requests are subject to availability. The person will be met on arrival if applicable by a member of the Keele staff and a Personal Emergency and Evacuation Procedure will be discussed.

13.4 All guests and your suppliers must follow our Health and Safety procedure at all times and be made aware of emergency procedures.

13.5 There is a maximum capacity of people for all of our facilities including function rooms and bedrooms. If you exceed this number we will ask the number in excess to leave the room.

13.6 Smoking is not permitted inside any venue of the University.

13.7 You must inform us of any accidents or incidents which involve you or any individuals associated with your wedding which occurs whilst on the University premises. You will need to complete the Universities standard accident / incident report available from the venue reception, university reception areas and security and return to us within 3 working days.

13.8 We do not accept any responsibility for the security of you or your guest's personal possessions.

14. OUTSIDE SERVICES

14.1 If you use the services of anyone other than the University they must follow our procedures this can include but not limited to entertainment suppliers & acts and chocolate fountains. You must notify us in writing that you intend to have outside services present during your wedding and we reserve the right to approve these. We will require their details including company name, contact name and telephone number confirming to us at the final details appointment with your wedding organiser. You should ensure that they comply with our regulations and you should bring these Terms & Conditions to their attention.

14.2 All outside services must follow 13.1 and 13.2 in relation to any equipment they bring onto the University premises, all equipment must be PAT tested and have a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of the wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

14.3 Copies of all outside services insurance documents are required, they must carry public and employers liability and provide risk assessments if requested by us. We do not accept liability for acts or omissions of any party employed by you as part of your event.

14.4 We strongly recommend that you do not confirm any bookings with suppliers before these conditions have been met and we have received copies of all certification as detailed in this point.

14.5 Should we arrange any 3rd party suppliers for your wedding, we are acting as an agent on your behalf and do not accept any liability.

15. SECURITY AND BEHAVIOUR

15.1 A security presence is required for evening functions and this will be arranged and provided by Keele University. This is provided for the safety of your guests and Keele Staff. A minimum of two staff will be provided for the core hours of your wedding, including at least 30 minutes after bar closure time. Keele reserve the right to perform bag searches, so that no unauthorised or dangerous items are brought on site.

15.2 You must ensure that those attending your wedding behave in a way that does not cause a nuisance or disruption to other clients, staff, residents or students. If any participant is unable to correct their behaviour, we may ask them to leave the premises

15.3 Any damage caused to Keele University property by those attending your wedding will be invoiced after the day. In order to maintain the quality of our facilities for all our clients, we ask that nothing is affixed to the wall, floors or ceilings without our written approval.

16. FOR YOUR PEACE OF MIND

16.1 Keele University's insurance policy only covers Public Liability where Keele University is held to be liable. We recommend that you insure yourself against other eventualities. Our liability is limited to the contract price.

16.2 In case of dispute, we can call on the services of Meetings Industry Association Arbitration and Conciliation Service.

17. GENERAL INFORMATION

You may not make any amendment or variation to these terms unless we agree in writing with you before the event. You may not dispose of any of your rights or obligations under this agreement without us agreeing in writing before the event. This contract forms the entire agreement and understanding between the parties for this event. The contract is governed and construed in accordance with English Law and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales

CIVIL CEREMONIES/PARTNERSHIPS AT KEELE HALL

The beautiful setting of Keele Hall is fully licensed to hold civil ceremonies / partnerships with a choice of no less than two impressive venues; the Salvin Suite and the Ballroom.

If you wish to marry at Keele Hall you will require the attendance of the Superintendent Registrar of the District to conduct the ceremony and a Registrar to register the marriage. Please telephone 01782 297581.

You will also need to indicate your intention to marry to the Superintendent Registrar(s) in the district where you live, for which a charge may be made. Authority for the marriage will be issued by the Superintendent Registrar(s) of the district(s) notified, 21 days after notice is given. The authority(s) should then be handed to the Registrar at Newcastle Register Office. The fee, payable to the Register Office is currently £303.50 (or £353.50 for a Sunday or Bank Holiday ceremony)*. Your marriage authority is then valid for a period of 12 months. There is also an additional £75.00 booking fee required at the time of booking.

For marriage ceremonies only, at Keele Hall, the full names of the Bride and Groom must be given to your personal Wedding Organiser, prior to the ceremony. The marriage ceremony must be a civil, non-religious ceremony. Any readings, music, words or performances must be secular and regular and agreed with the Superintendent Registrar in advance. There must be no religious artefacts in the room.

No food or drink may be consumed in the room in which the ceremony is to take place, for at least one hour prior to the ceremony, or during the ceremony. Public access to the ceremony of marriage must be permitted.

* Subject to a price increase as from 1st April 2013.

WEDDING TERMS & CONDITIONS

KEELE WEDDINGS

1. WHO IS THE CONTRACT BETWEEN

The contract is between you (the client named on the booking contract) and Us (Commercial & Business Engagement a department of Keele University). The event refers to the booking of our facilities for a specific date and time.

2. PROVISIONAL BOOKINGS

Your booking is considered provisional until you and we sign the booking contract. We will hold the provisional booking for 14 days.

3. PRICES

We may need to increase our prices from the original quotation in line with market fluctuations and inflation. Room hire will not be increased. We will let you know in writing of any increase in the prices and menus will be available 3 months prior to your wedding date.

4. CONFIRMING YOUR BOOKING

We will confirm your booking only on the basis of these terms and the booking contract signed by you. When you confirm your booking you agree to pay all the charges that are listed on the quote. We will base these charges on your confirmed minimum numbers, your estimated menu costs and room hire. You should tell us the minimum and maximum numbers for your booking. You must cater for 100% of your guests.

5. PAYING FOR YOUR EVENT

When you confirm your booking you should send us a non-refundable deposit of £750.00. An invoice for the remainder will be sent when the final arrangements have been agreed with us, usually 6 weeks before your wedding. Full payment is due before your wedding day. Any additional costs incurred on the day of the wedding, after full payment has been made, should be paid on the night. Payment can be made by cash, cheque (payable to Keele University) or most major credit cards.

6. ALTERING YOUR BOOKING

If you make an alteration we will send you a new booking contract which will replace any previous booking contract. Any reduction in numbers or facilities must be paid for under clause 7. All of your requirements confirmed at the start of the booking will be charged for in full.

7. CANCELLING ALL OR PART OF YOUR BOOKING

7.1 You should tell us of any alterations to your booking in writing.

7.2 If you need to cancel more than 6 months before the event, only the deposit will be retained.

If you need to cancel between 3 months and 6 months before the event, we reserve the right to charge 50% of the current quoted amount.

If you need to cancel between 28 days and 3 months before your event, we reserve the right to charge 75% of the current quoted amount.

If you need to cancel less than 28 days before your event, no refund can be made and the event should be paid in for in full.

7.3 You must pay in full for all items listed on your quote that you do not cancel. When a menu has not been chosen, the cancellation charges will be based on the current quote.

8. ALTERATIONS OR CANCELLATIONS BY US

8.1 We have the right to alter or cancel any booking due to circumstances beyond our control.

If this happens we will use all reasonable endeavours to offer you an alternative. We cannot accept responsibility if we are unable to provide any element of the booking because of industrial action or any other cause which was beyond our reasonable control or if the University needs the facilities for the use of its own students.

8.2 We may cancel or terminate an event if the booking might, in the opinion of the University, prejudice its reputation or endanger its staff, students, residents and/or clients.

9. CHANGES TO FACILITIES BOOKED

We may alter the facilities booked in order to meet the needs of the booking as you have explained them to us. If we feel that this is necessary, we will discuss it with you before any changes are made.

10. THE FINAL DETAILS

Your wedding organiser will invite you to meet and discuss final details approximately 2 months before the date of your wedding. Final details including menus, numbers and timings should be confirmed no later than 6 weeks before your wedding. Following this the booking contract and quote will be updated and an invoice will be raised for final payment.

11. ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

Facilities are only available for the time shown on the booking contract. Any extension to this should be done with our agreement and it will be confirmed if a charge will be made.

12. FOOD AND DRINK

Neither you nor anyone attending your event should bring food, liquor or refreshment onto University premises.

13. HEALTH, SAFETY & LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

13.1 You must advise us of any equipment you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure this is in good repair and condition and shall obtain all risk assessments as appropriate. We reserve the right to request copies of these. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should we feel this necessary.

13.2 You must advise us of any portable electrical equipment which you or your suppliers intend to bring onto the University premises. You must ensure any such equipment has been PAT tested and has a valid certificate; we reserve the right to request copies of these in advance of your wedding. We also reserve the right to refuse equipment to be used onsite should this not be tested or the test invalid.

13.3 You should notify us as soon as you are aware of any individuals attending your wedding who are disabled or have any special requirements. We will contact the person concerned and discuss their requirements to allow us to make the appropriate arrangements. We will endeavour to meet any reasonable request, however we regret that we cannot guarantee any request will be met unless we have specifically confirmed this in writing. All such requests are subject to availability. The person will be met on arrival if applicable by a member of the Keele staff and a Personal Emergency and Evacuation Procedure will be discussed.

13.4 All guests and your suppliers must follow our Health and Safety procedure at all times and be made aware of emergency procedures.

13.5 There is a maximum capacity of people for all of our facilities including function rooms and bedrooms. If you exceed this number we will ask the number in excess to leave the room.
